The first case used, which is for the camera equipment, is the Think Tank Photo Airport Navigator. This case can be accessed from the top or from the side. It has wheels that are good for normal travel but not for off-road trails. The second case used, which has large wheels good for off-road trail use, is the dBest products Trolley Dolly with Seat, Black Shopping Grocery Foldable Cart Tailgate. The Think Tank Photo Airport Navigator is mounted to the dBest Trolley Dolly from the side D rings and the bottom handle with 24" velcro cinch straps. Inside this particular setup is a Sony Alpha A1 camera with a 100-400 mm lens, a second Sony Alpha A7RIIIA camera with a 24 mm prime lens, a 1.4x teleconverter, and accessories. Any camera system and accessories can be used. The top handle of the dBest Trolley Dolly is folded horizontally, which allows the entire system to be placed into an automobile.
